DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I in the reply filed on 3/13/07 is acknowledged. The examiner thanks the applicants for correcting the examiner's type error with respect to claim numbering.

Specification

2. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

5. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

The claims do not conform to standard US method format.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Parsoneault et al (US 5,601,125) in view of Balteau (US 3,645,508).

Parsoneault discloses the motor and oil are placed in a vacuum chamber 68 as shown in Fig. 2; the chamber is next evacuated down to a substantially reduced pressure lower than that of the surrounding environment (50 mTorr), while the temperature in the chamber is increased to 65 degree C; the oil is degassed; subsequently, the vacuum chamber pressure is slowly returned to normal atmosphere pressure and forces the oil through the hydrodynamic bearing, except for providing a stirrer and a magnetic drive source.

Balteau discloses providing a stirrer and a magnetic drive source (col. 2, lines 1-2 and Fig. 2).

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Parsoneault by providing a stirrer and a magnetic drive source, as taught by Balteau, for the purpose of evenly distributing the heat throughout the oil.

Conclusion

8. Please provide reference numerals (either in parentheses next to the claimed limitation or in a table format with one column listing the claimed limitation and another column listing corresponding reference numerals in the remark section of the response to the Office Action) to all the claimed limitations as well as support in the disclosure for better clarity (optional).

Applicants are duly reminded that a full and proper response to this Office Action that includes any amendment to the claims and specification of the application as originally filed requires that the applicant point out the support for any amendment made to the disclosure, including the claims. See 37 CFR 1.111 and MPEP 2163.06.
